

Tried and True Events

Essay Review Night (Boston)

Volunteers work one on one with a high school senior who has come to the event with an essay prepared. The volunteer works with the student on his or her essay and talks to the student about the college process. He or she may even conduct a "mock interview" with each student as a way to prepare for college interviews.